

The Greater Lakes Association of REALTORS®

WHY A REALTOR®?

Today, more than ever, buyers and sellers face difficult decisions. A REALTOR® who has gone beyond licensing and becomes a member of a local Association of REALTORS® has agreed to adhere to a strict Code of Ethics. If you join the REALTOR® Association, you become a member of a distinguished organization of professionals. It offers many services that will be of benefit to you, the professional.

What would you expect from your REALTOR® organization? Services offered by the Greater Lakes Association of REALTORS® are carried out and maintained through the efforts of committees and members who volunteer their time to make the Association the best it can be.

The Greater Lakes Association of REALTORS® is one of more than 1,800 local boards and association of REALTORS® nationwide that comprise the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR). The Greater Lakes Association of REALTORS® has 600 members in Crow Wing, Cass, Morrison, Aitkin, Hubbard, Mill Lacs, and Wadena counties. As the nation's largest trade association, NAR is "The Voice for Real Estate", representing nearly 1 million members involved in all aspects of the real estate industry.

Please feel free to call the Association office at 218-828-4567, or email them at office@greaterlakesrealtors.com if you have any questions about membership. Our staff is available to help in any way they can.

ORGANIZATION: The Board of Directors governs the organization and operation of the Board. Input from standing committees and task force committees is a prime source of information used in setting Association policy.

CODE OF ETHICS: The National Association of REALTORS® looks to its local Association to enforce the Code of Ethics. The Code of Ethics was adopted in 1913. REALTORS® are pledged to observe and abide by the Code of Ethics, which contains 17 articles.

MEMBERSHIP PROGRAM: The Association offers Membership Open Forum meetings throughout the year. The purpose of these meetings is to bring the Greater Lakes Association of REALTORS® together on a regular basis. The intention of such a gathering is to service and hopefully accomplish several goals.

MEMBERSHIP CERTIFICATE: As a new Affiliate member, you will receive a membership certificate.

INFORMATION SERVICES: The Association staff answers hundreds of calls a month from members of the Association and the public seeking specialized information. Consumers are directed to the Association web page.

TOTAL COMMUNICATION EFFORTS: The Association communicates with its members in various ways; Weekly email information, monthly REALTOR® Advisor, special mailings and by fax machine. The Association website address is www.greaterlakesrealtors.com and the public is invited to Find a Home, Find a REALTOR®, Find an Affiliate and more. Members of the Association have a "Members Only" section for even more information.

COMMITTEES: All projects and programs offered by the Association are sponsored and directed by one or more of its Committees. There are seven committees within the Association; Bylaws, Education, Equal Opportunity, Forms, Governmental Affairs, Membership, Public Relations and Special Events.

AFFILIATE PARTICIPATION: All Affiliate members are encouraged to participate in REALTOR® functions, such as:

1. Installation of Officers, in October.
2. Toys For Kids, in November-December.
